RANDOLPH-MACON NO MATCH FOR SPIDERS

Richmond College Backs Smash Yellow Jackets' Line, and Sport Ends Almost at Will.

MAC PITT THE SHINING LIGHT

Touchdowns and Also Pulls Long End Runs-Davis, Hardy and Riddick Star for Visitors.

Results Yesterday. Richmond College, 27: Randolph-Macon, Hampden-Sidney, 21; William and Mary, dolph-Macon Yellow Jackets yesterday vard Field by the score of 27 to 0, in ginning to end, but from a football angle the game was way off, as the spiders romped away from their oponents, and scored almost at will.

Richmond College skirted their oponents' ends at various intervals broughout the game, shile Randolph-Macon's line was ripped to pieces by some Spider carrying the ball for five or ten yards and even more. The Jackets found it hard to stop the onrushes of the Red and Blue backs, and tial gains by end runs and line plunges. Spencer was worked very little at full pon the other men.

randolph-Macon fought hard throughout and displayed remarkable pluck.
The Jackets knew that they were defeated and, despite the fact that they were unable to cross their opponents' goal line, they kept in the game and never gave up. Urged on by the band of rooters, the Ashlanders put their best effort in the game, and fully demonstrated to the crowd that they fight hard against great odds. hard against great odds.

The local collegians got busy in the initial quarter and scored a touchdown. A series of line rushes and end runs every effort to run up a big score in the second quarter and succeeded in making two touchdowns and kicking as many goals from touchdowns, ball seesawed up and down the during this quarter until finally th Spiders got possession of the oval and Mac Pitt made a substantial gain or on a long end run, scored the second couchdown of the game. Whittet again Richmond College opened up a smashing offensive, following thi touchdown and once more began a march toward the Jackets' goal. Pit and Whittet figured in a forward pass which netted about twenty yards Here the Spiders began their line went over for the third touchdown and again Whittet kicked a goal. The first half ended with the score 21 to 0 in favor of the locals.

Both teams seemed to profit by the fifteen minutes' rest period and returned to the second half greatly refreshed. The Jackets' play at the begin-ning of the s could helf was much bet-ter than any they had showed during the first portion of the contest. The boys seemed to fight harder during this period than they did in the first and the result was that the local team found it a little harder to make those long substantial gains.

Richmond College gradually work-ed the ball up the field into the Jackets' territory by mainly relying upon Pitt and Miller for advancing the ball. These youngsters proved worthy, and it was not long before Miller was sent of the game. Whittet missed the try at goal, owing to the fact that he made a bad punt on the kick out, the ball having gone over the line at a very difficult angle.

Randolph - Macon's play improved wonderfully as the game progressed, and their best work was done in the final quarter. Coach Reiss sent in a number of substitutes with instructions to open up an aerial attack, and it was by this method that the Jackets gained most of the ground in this period. Davis, full back and Riddick executed several fine forward passes, while Davis and Bridgeforth and Gumm, the ends, worked several successful ones. The Jackets used this method of advancing the ball practically all the time in the last quarter, and it was mainly through this attack that they kept the Spiders

In a game in which so many thrills occurred it is practically impossible to pick an individual star without doing an injustice to the other players. Mac Pitt, Miller and Kuyk bore the brunt of the battle for the Spiders, and Pitt can be classed as the shining light of Mac gan back punts well, and the Jackets' tacklers found it difficult to hold him. Pitt also gained a great deal of ground on his end runs.

Captain Bobbie Whittet, of the Spiders, got in the limelight several times with his all-around work. The Spider captain did all of the punting for team, and he easily had the better of Hardy and Riddick, of Randolph-Macon.

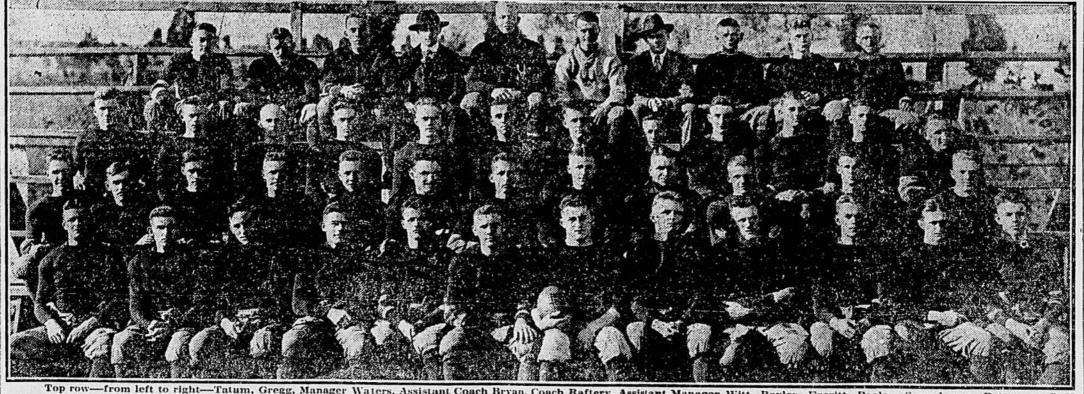

Hardy, the Randolph-Macon quarter back, and Riddick, at left half, divided the honors of the afternoon for their team. Aside from their kicking ability. they were very instrumental in getting off the forward passes, although Davis was the main cog in shooting the

The feature of the game aside from the football end was spirit displayed by both sides. The men on both team displayed gentlemanly conduct at all times and there was no foul playing during the entire game. The few penalties that were imposed upon the teams were for offside and holding.

Yesterday's victory places the Sipders in second place in the race for the championship of the Eastern Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Association, as brought the ball to the Jackets' twenty-yard line, when Kuyk, by an end run, pushed it across for the first touchdown of the game. Whittet kicked the goal, and the score sited 7 to 0.

Both teams fought hard during the remainder of the quarter, but, despite the fact that the Spiders managed to advance the ball considerably, the Jackets tightened up and with that never-say-die spirit kept the locals from scoring again in this period.

The men marked "withdrew" fell out of the competition when they found they had no show to win to save time and hurry the shooting through before dark. Brockwell, Grundy and Jones matched for the Class C cup, they being tied on a perfect score. Jones won. Brockwell and Hart tied in the President Grundy cup race, but Brockwell being high man in the News Leader cup race and not being eligible to win both cups, selected the News Leader cup, which gave the President's cup to Hart, he being high gun in that match.

HARD GAME AT LYNCHBURG

Hill City and Roanoke High Schools Singe Great Battle, but Latter School Wins.

School Wins.

LYNCHBURG, VA., October 27.—In a hard-fought contest, in which weight, age and experience told toward end of the fray, Roanoke High to-day defeated the Lynchburg High, 19 to 7. The game was clean and hard fought. The teams played to a stand in the first quarter, and the end of the half found both elevens fighting midfield. Lynchburg quickly broke down the Roanoke defense in the third period, scoring a pretty touchdown, neat forward passes and line plunging meeting the first score. The success of the locals speeded up the visitors, and they marched through the field from the kick for a touchdown, Quarter-Back McConnell's lunges through the line making this possible, and Gettle kicked goal. Straight football in the last quarter gave two more touchdowns, despite the plucky fight of the lighter Lynchburg team. The line-up: Lynchburg.

Warren ran the ball back eighteen yards. Then Parrish, Granam and Captain Warren laced away at the enemy's primary defense, and in four minutes had the oval on the two-yard line. Ferguson and Allen made a hole and Jones sipped through for the hirst count. Egrguson kicked goal.

William and Mary received, and advanced eight yards. A variety of formations were tried that netted a few yards, and then Captain Close punted. The Tigers again rushed the ball to within eight yards of the last chalk, but the Indians held and Close booted the ball out of danger. Parrish ripped through tackle for fifteen, and when the whistle ended the quarter, Hampden-Sidney was twenty yards from goal.

Harvard Held to Tie.

AYER, MASS. October 27.—The depot brigade football team at Camp Devens fought the Harvard informal eleven to a stalemate to-day, neither team being able to score. The army team, coached by Charley Coolidge, Harvard's star end in the days of Brickley, Hardwick and Mahan, played a slashing game in the line, having a little the better of the Crimson.

Vandy Wins on Straight Football.

NASHVILLE, TENN., October 27.—Relying almost entirely upon straight football, Vanderbilt swamped the light Howard eleven here this afternoon, 69 to 0. The field was a sea of mud, greatly handicapping the fast backs from Birmingham.

Cornell Beats Bucknell,

ITHACA. N. Y., October 27.—A fighting Cornell feeten the first afternoon by a score of 20 to 0. The more fight than any combination Dr. Sharp has put on the field this year.

After the first five minutes of play the result never was in doubt.
